THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR.

The Regina Leader of the 17th inst. contains an editorial under the heading "The Lieutenant-Governor."

Since the recent crisis in Territorial affairs, we have been a careful reader of the columns of the Leader, and we have been unable to find any article from which could be gathered any enlightenment with regard to the political situation; and if the people of the Territories had to depend solely on the editorial in question for an intelligent setting-forth of the constitutional aspect of affairs, they would remain in a state of blissful ignorance. In perusing the article a plodding reader who has plenty of time at his disposal can by dint of much perseverance lay bare two or three points about which is clustered a column of sentences prolific with big words.

The article is a perfect evasion of the question at issue. Half a column is devoted to a purposeless comparison between the functions of a lieutenant governor in one of the provinces and the lieutenant-governor of the North-West Territories. The Leader tells us that the lieutenant-governor of the Territories can be removed by an order in council. Quite true! No person has ever denied this. We believe it also to be true that the lieutenant-governor goes to bed at night and rises in the morning, and eats, on an average, three meals a day. But these facts have no bearing upon the question. What has the provision for the removal of a lieutenant-governor to do with proroguing the assembly at such a critical moment, and the continuing in office of an executive which has not the confidence of the House? Does the Regina Leader presume to insult the intelligence of its readers by offering such unbecoming vapors as reading matter? Is it not most apparent that the sole purpose of the article is to shield the lieutenant-governor from the censure which is so justly his due, and at the same time to exhibit in print the name of Mr. Davin, and to show instances of his unparalleled zeal in the legislative halls at Ottawa?

A perusal of the following extracts from the article in question will be interesting:—

"The Advisory Board clause was inserted by Sir John Macdonald himself, who had charge of the bill, in consequence of an amendment proposed by MR. DAVIN in favor of full responsible government."

"But MR. DAVIN, who, as will be seen when Sir John Macdonald's correspondence with him is published, HAD THE CONFIDENCE OF THE GREAT CONSERVATIVE LEADER, received a letter from him stating the views of the Government."

We have been informed in the columns of a recent issue of the Leader that Mr. Davin had retired from the editorship. It is manifest that either Mr. Davin still inspires the editorials that appear in the Leader, or else their writer is a man strongly impressed with Mr. Davin's all-importance, and who views all subjects only in so far as they can furnish excuses for lauding Mr. Davin. We imagine that readers of the Leader in Moose Jaw hear quite sufficient of Mr. Davin's parliamentary acts, when he addresses public meetings in this town, without having their recital inflicted on them in every issue of his paper, couched in language which is the outcome of an intense and over-weening egotism.

A journal that exists for no higher purpose than for self-praise, and the blanching of a lieutenant-governor whose career from the day of his appointment to the present has been one "comedy of errors," of ill advised, partisan and unconstitutional acts,—must occupy a very mean place in the estimation of the people of the North-West Territories.

C. P. R. Traffic Receipts.

THE NEW MINISTER.

T. M. DALY, SWORN IN ON MONDAY.

Supt. Genl. of Indian Affairs as well as Minister of the Interior.

OTTAWA, Oct. 17.—This morning the ceremony of swearing in Thomas Mayne Daly, as minister of the Interior, was conducted by the clerk of the Privy Council.

MR. DALY'S LIFE.

Mr. Daly is the second son of the late T. M. Daly of Stratford, Ont., who represented the county of Perth in the legislative assembly of Canada from 1854 to 1863, and North Perth in the House of Commons and Ontario assembly at different times from the union of 1875. Mr. Daly was born at Stratford, Ont., on the 16th of August, 1852, and was educated at the Upper Canada college, Toronto. On the 4th of June, 1879, he married Margaret Annabella, daughter of P. R. Jarvis, Stratford. He was called to the bar of Ontario in 1885. In the year 1881 Mr. Daly removed from Stratford to Manitoba and has for some years past practised his profession at Brandon. He was appointed Queen's Counsel by the Dominion Government on the 15th of February, 1890. He was a member of the town council of Stratford in 1880-81 and also chairman of the public school board. Mr. Daly was the first mayor of Brandon, being elected in 1882 and re-elected in 1884. He has occupied many positions of trust since his residence in Manitoba, being bench-er of the Law Society of Manitoba, chairman of the western judicial district of Manitoba, vice-president for Selkirk of the Liberal-Conservative association of Manitoba, and president of the Liberal-Conservative association of the county of Brandon. Mr. Daly was first elected for Selkirk at the general election in 1887, when he defeated J. A. Christie. He was re-elected at the last general election, defeating Hon. Joseph Martin by 435 votes.

DEWEY SAYS FAREWELL.

Hon Mr. Dewdney has not yet been sworn in as lieutenant governor, of British Columbia. He took his farewell of the interior department and the Indian office today.

Col. Villiers Re-Installed.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 19.—The many friends of Lt.-Col. Villiers will be pleased to learn that a telegram was received here from Ottawa last night re-instating him in his position as deputy adjutant general for District No. 10. Col. Villiers' answer to the charges made against him of absence from duty was forwarded to Ottawa last week and considered yesterday by Major-General Herbert with the result that a telegram was forwarded the colonel exonerating the order for suspension. Much sympathy has been expressed for Col. Villiers, and all will be glad to know that he again has full charge.

Death on the Rail.

MEDICINE HAT, Oct. 18.—A fearful accident occurred here this evening as the west-bound express arrived at the station. Before the train had stopped a young man named O'Malley attempted to step around the iron railing from one lower step to another. In doing so he missed his footing and fell between the track and the station platform. The unfortunate man was drawn beneath the wheels which passed over his body and almost disembowelled him. The young man was apparently between twenty and twenty-five years of age, and hailed from Boston. On his person was found a letter of introduction from La Touche Tupper, to a friend in San Francisco.

More Coal Discoveries.

Commercial.—The recent discovery of coal in the Prince Albert district is a matter of very great importance to a large section of country. If the deposit is at all as valuable as expected. It is a matter upon which the people of all Manitoba and adjacent country may be congratulated. Though there are extensive areas of wood country to the north and east of the great prairie region, it is apparent that wood fuel from these forest regions could not be supplied to all parts of the prairie region, except at a cost which would make its use almost prohibitory. The supply of wood fuel in the aggregate is vast enough to supply the country's wants as far ahead as it is at present necessary to look, but it is not so distributed as to become a convenient and economical fuel for the country at large.

The discovery of vast coal beds in the North West greatly relieved the anxiety regarding the fuel supply of the future. As these discoveries went on, it was finally decided that the fuel question had been favorably solved. There remained, however, a difficulty even after the discoveries had been made. The great coal beds were all away west, and the transportation by rail of the coal from the west to the eastern portions of the prairie country would increase the cost of the commodity considerably. While the coal could be handled and transported more cheaply than wood, the long railway haul would make the cost a considerable item.

The construction of a railway to the Souris coal region opened the most convenient source of supply for the eastern part of the country. These mines are not sufficiently developed yet to allow of a confident expression as to their value. The location of the coal territory, however, is exceedingly favorable, and if the supply comes up to expectations, the southeastern portion of the prairie region will be secured cheap fuel. The west is already abundantly supplied with coal of excellent quality, and unlimited quantities. If the recent discoveries in the Prince Albert district prove extensive, the result will be the opening of coal mines in the north central region. In that region there is abundance of wood fuel convenient for all likely requirements for many years to come. There are vast forests to the north of the Saskatchewan, so that it will not be necessary to depend upon the newly discovered coal. The coal, however, is favorably located for shipment to a large section of country which is most remote from the previously discovered coal beds. This will include the northern portion of Manitoba and a considerable part of northern Saskatchewan.

The Eclipse.

A partial eclipse of the sun, visible over North America, except on the Pacific coast, occurred yesterday. The moon was so far north that the belt of totality was near the pole. Consequently only one-third of the sun's disc was obscured. There was really only a notching-in of darkness near the top portion of the solar disc, a gradual creeping in of the moon, and then a fading off until the right hand side of the invisible moon completed the uncovering of the sun at its left hand edge.

The phenomenon was interesting because it was easily recognised with the aid of smoked glass, which helped to a steady view of the change in the solar outline.

The eclipse began at 9.45 and was watched with interest by a number of citizens.

A Scandal at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The sole topic of conversation at the capital today is a local clerical scandal which creates the greatest sensation. Mrs. Farries, wife of the pastor of Knox Presbyterian church here, and J. W. Russell, a prominent Ottawa merchant, are alleged to be guilty of adultery, and the charge is to be investigated at once by the church authorities. Mr. Russell has left for England on a purchasing trip, it is said, and Mrs. Farries with her eldest daughter and a three-year child is in New York. Rev. Mr. Farries is making arrangements to leave town.

"Not clinging to some ancient saw,
Not mastered by some modern term,
Not swift nor slow to change; but firm."

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1892.

A NEW PRECEDENT.

The Regina Leader, the avowed organ of the Cayley party makes, in its last issue, some assertions that are more amusing than instructive. As such organ it informs us of the astounding fact—something that has hitherto been a mere matter of conjecture—that "the real reason Mr. Haultain was defeated was that he had, by his demeanor, given offence to a number of the members."

Never since the infancy of the British Constitution, can be found an instance of an executive officer's being deprived of office for such a reason. Forsooth! If this were the case, D'Israeli would have been politically decapitated at the commencement of his career, and Sir John Macdonald would never have been permitted to address the House, for the demeanor of both these statesmen, and their facial contortions, would have caused their expulsion from office. Going back to earlier times, a mere view of Oliver Cromwell, and England would have been without a Protector. Indeed the recent retirement of Premier Abbott may be attributed to the establishment of this precedent by the Regina Leader, and, judging from a cartoon in the current number of Grip, Sir John Thompson cannot hope to retain office for a single hour.

Mr. Haultain's face, as he entered the House, should "shine as it were the sun," it should have gladdened the legislative halls with its light, "and ripened thought into action." He should have pried the members where no praise could be given; he should have forgiven their follies and overlooked their faults. In addressing the House he should never have used lofty diction or stately periods, but his speech should have had a true agricultural flavor, in order to suit the mental calibre of the opposition.

We regret to see a journal in the nineteenth century, a journal that claims to mould the thought and voice the opinion of the people of the Territories, giving utterance to such arrant nonsense.

THE SOO ROAD.

The following sensible advice to the people of Regina appears in the Edmonton Bulletin.

The Regina Leader complains that faith is not being kept by the C.P.R. with Regina in the matter of the "Soo" road. Regina was at first promised a road from the south-east. As the "Soo" was coming from that direction they claimed it in fulfillment of the promise. They were put off by the assurance that the "Soo" was not the road they were promised, but another and distinct road, and that its construction to Pangu would not prevent the first promise from being carried out in due time. The Leader finds that the route being followed by the Soo line is the one, to a great extent that was to have been followed by the Regina road, and, still worse, it is not even called the "Soo" line, but "the Northwest extension of the Souris Branch," the very description of the road promised Regina. It appears to be pretty plain that the C. P. R. is not minded to fulfil its promise to Regina, and the question is what is Regina going to do about it. There is only one thing it can do, and that is to use the influence it possesses through its parliamentary representative and otherwise to secure the extension of the Northern Pacific from Brandon to Regina. There is a field to be served by such a road by way of Moose Mountain and no doubt the Northern Pacific could and would build it if substantial inducements were offered. Sympathy is played out as a means of serving substantial purpose in this case, and the only thing left is for Regina to get up and back. Talk no longer counts. They must act.

THE OPINION OF THE FREE PRESS.

The Winnipeg Free Press closes an editorial comment on "The Northwest Squabble" with these words: The present situation must be a severe strain on the system of responsible government that has scarcely entered upon the stage of experiment in the Territories. We are not apprehensive of the consequences, as they will be less injurious to the system itself than to the actors in this little drama; but it is to be regretted nevertheless. It is to be regretted only for the reason that it is laying the foundation of bitter party feeling. The constitution and the system it protects will come through all right; but political rivalry and strife, with the animosities they engender, will be left as legacies of the struggle. The North-West could do without these for a long time to come yet. It is too young; its effort at self-government is too distinctly tentative to give pleasure to the contemplation of its public men engaged in a fierce struggle for political supremacy, to the danger if not absolute neglect of those public interests they are supposed to have in charge.

The above is clear, logical, and to the point. It sets forth a principle and points out a danger. When the Free Press deals with subjects in the abstract it occasionally hits the mark, but when it comes down to the concrete it is narrow-minded and bigoted. The rest of the article in question is unworthy of the ending. In this, as in every other article on the North-west deadlock, the Free Press shows plainly that it has not taken the trouble to inform itself of the true condition of affairs. It speaks, it is true, according to its light. But that light has been diffused by the Regina Leader and H. S. Cayley.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Winnipeg Tribune looks well in its new dress.

The Eastern newspapers still adhere to the pernicious practice of spelling Moose Jaw with a small j.

T. W. Bengough has entered into an exclusive agreement with the Montreal star to furnish it with caricatures and sketches.

Dr. Patrick and F. McNutt, of Saltcoats, and Mr. Insinger, of Yorkton, are in the field for the position made vacant by the death of Jael Reaman.

Here is an interesting mathematical problem for our readers: Problem, given a new Lieutenant Governor plus an appeal to the people,—plot the velocity of the exit of Cayley's executive.

When a man leaves our side and goes to the other side he is a traitor, and we always felt that there was a subtle something wrong about him. But when a man leaves the other side and comes over to us, then he is a man of great moral courage, and we always felt that he had sterling stuff in him.

Mr. McNeil, a Canadian delegate to the Chambers of Commerce, in an address to a convention in Sheffield, uses these words: "If there was ever a proposition upon which the people of Canada were united it is the trade proposal. Canada's loyalty to the mother Country is now being subjected to a terrible strain."

Some critics place Tennyson as fifth in the galaxy of England's great poets, the others being Shakespeare, Chaucer, Milton and Spenser. The claim is based upon many grounds, and amongst them his exquisite diction; the sustained perfection of his style; the variety of his themes; his lyrical powers; his capacity for picturesque description; the purity and manliness of his verse, and his intense sympathy with nineteenth century ideas. Others place him next to Shakespeare and Milton.

The Canadian Grocer, Toronto, is out with a very handsome special fall number.

The movement of wheat is growing larger daily and the C. P. R. are doing their utmost to move the crop with satisfactory speed.

The Governor-General has appointed Thursday, Nov. 10th, as a day of general thanksgiving through the Dominion of Canada.

There have been two applications for the seat of Senator re-elected vacant by the death of Senator Girard. Mr. T. A. Bernier of Saint Boniface is being championed by A. A. C. Lariviere, M. P. for Provencier. The other applicant is the Honourable Joseph Royal.

Dominion revenue receipts for September were $3,283,968 and for the first three months of the fiscal year $9,314,485, being an increase of $498,882 over the same period last year. There is also an excess of revenue over the expenditure of $3,560,539.

The Empire says: The decision of the Minister of Militia to expunge the name of E. A. Macdonald from the list of officers of the active militia will be warmly approved of by every man in the Dominion. The minister is entitled to the greatest credit for nipping this annexationist's Boston campaign in the bud as a lieutenant in the Queen's loyal militia.

The Globe says: "Neither in 1882, nor in 1887, nor in 1891 were the Liberals well prepared for the contest. In each case dissolution of Parliament was precipitated upon the country, while the Liberals' plans were half laid, their preparations half made."

These remarks apply especially to the election of last year. The plans of the Liberals were then "half laid" in very very truth. Their friends were distributed over the neighboring Republic scheming with foreigners when they should have been at home.

"The Spectacle," says the Free Press (speaking of the Northwest situation) "is not a pleasing one." We agree entirely with the statement. The spectacle is not a pleasing one for the members of the Assembly, who see the work of an entire session going for naught. The spectacle is not a pleasing one for the people of the Territories, who see their constitutional rights and privileges ruthlessly trampled under foot by unscrupulous men—false leaders, who, to borrow Milton's phrase, "creep, and intrude, and climb in to the fold." And for these men the spectacle is not a pleasing one. Their acceptance of office has made them small and contemptible in the eyes of the people, and they have nothing to look forward to in the future but defeat and ignominy.

A New Yorker and his wife who have been spending a holiday on the north shore of Lake Superior, are now edifying the readers of a native magazine with blood-curdling accounts of their perilous doings in "Darkest America." The lady declares she is the first white woman to set foot on these wild regions. The Manitoba Liberal says:—"This will be news to the thousand and one white women and children who came to Manitoba and the North-west via Port Arthur, Rainy River and Lake of the Woods in the sixties and seventies." It is rather surprising that the New York tourists did not pre-empt the north shore and all the country west to the Pacific in the name of the President of the United States. American enterprise and travel are truly astounding.

The Winnipeg Commercial has the following to say on the subject of the choice of a name for the people of the United States:

"Some papers in the United States have brought up the question of choosing a name for their country, in connection with the celebration next year of the discovery of America. The United States has lived as a federated republic for over 100 years, and yet it has had no name by which its citizens can be properly designated. The general term 'American,' is not a correct word, when it is intended to refer solely to a citizen of the republic. Were the whole continent of North America incorporated in the United States, the word would still be misapplied. America is the name of the continent, and the continent includes the various independent countries of South as well as North America."

The Winnipeg Commercial cautions people against over-estimating the Manitoba crop this season. It says: "The quality of the wheat crop is all around very good, and infinitely superior to that of last year. Altogether the quantity and quality of the crop is such, that with fair prices ruling, this would prove a very profitable year for Manitoba farmers. The difficulty, however, comes in the matter of prices. At present wheat values, there is not much in it for many of our farmers. It will take a big yield of wheat to leave much margin at present prices, and unless a change comes in wheat values, our farmers will not have much from their years work." This is a plain direction to farmers not to depend entirely on wheat, but to adopt mixed farming.

The attitude of Tennyson toward human society and his Maker may be gathered in the stanzas of "In Memoriam." That poem is predated with the atmosphere of the time. In it we see the wave of inquiry, which had risen in civic revolution sweeping in widening circles over the primal verities which declare the origin and destiny of men. The mind is active but the heart of the age is perplexed and sad. She ponders painfully the riddle of the painful earth. She is lost to the great forest; the new paths are uncertain, the old to her seem overgrown. She is troubled with a vague unrest, beset with the dark misgivings; by results she loaths to accept, doubts which she longs to silence and hopes that she dares not forego. Her mood is to grave and earnest for blithe and heedless carol. She cannot pause to hear an idle singer of an empty day. The music which holds her ear must be as the strains of "In Memoriam," attuned to serious sympathy; it must echo her own self-questionings and breathe her aspirations. There is no doubt that Tennyson, being a true child of the century, has known how to speak words of comfort to many a heart, she has given fortitude and elevation of purpose to many lives.

The initial number of the Elkhorn District Advocate was among our exchanges this week. This new arrival is a six-column quarto with a supplement. From a mechanical point of view the new paper presents a neat and attractive appearance. The Advocate places MANITOBA, her rights and interests, above and before all else. The paper is independent in politics. We take the following from the leading article: "In politics we shall be independent. It has sometimes been said that a newspaper taking no political side in the leading questions of the day is but a poor affair, and must necessarily be of the milk-and-water type. To this we reply that a paper working for any one party, pouring forth its vials of indignation upon the heads of its political foes, challenging the enemy to answer this or that question when there is no enemy within fighting distance to accept its challenge, is unworthy of the name of champion of any party, and for this reason we have decided, after due consideration, to keep our columns free as possible from articles and vexed controversy, both in religious and political matters. Reports will always be published, and we reserve the right of applauding or criticising any public action, but to take any one side and act as its mouth-piece we distinctly decline, until we have side by side a worthy foe who can fight us with our own weapons."

The result of the recent ministerial conference has become known. When Sir John Abbott returns from England he will resign the premiership in favor of Sir John Thompson, minister of justice, a Roman Catholic. To offset this W. R. Meredith, leader of the Conservative Opposition in the Ontario legislature and one of the extreme Protestant wing of the party, will be taken into the cabinet as minister of justice which portfolio will be vacated by Thompson when he becomes premier. The further cabinet changes to be made on the premier's return include the resignation of the Hon. Mr. Dewdney, minister of the interior, who will become Lieut. Governor of British Columbia. His place in the cabinet will be filled by Mr. T. M. Daly, member for Siskiwit. The Manitoba school question will be settled by the Dominion government diverting a portion of the public lands in the province set aside for school purposes to the support of separate schools. This will be the extent of the relief granted those who suffer through the passage of the new act disestablishing separate schools in Manitoba.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

R. T. OF T.

Articles under this head are supplied by members of the Moose Jaw Council No. 9, Royal Temperance of Moose Jaw who are responsible for the same.

There seems to be some of the people of Moose Jaw who are not aware that the Royal Temperance have re-organized for active work, and are determined to keep the ball of temperance rolling in the direction of right. All those who have any desire to help the cause of temperance are invited to come and join the ranks, and thus increase our strength.

Some of those who profess to be temperance people seem to think we should accomplish just what they would like to see, while they stand idly by and when we fail to accomplish this through lack of support, they think our society is not worthy of their service. These are the people who are one of the great obstacles in the path of the temperance movement, they are too narrow minded to lend a helping hand to their unfortunate fellow man, who, perhaps is treading on the very brink of destruction from lack of sympathy on the part of the temperance people.

Of course we do not pretend to say that they must join the Royal Temperance in order to help the unfortunate, but we do say that the temperance people must become united in some way in order to make their efforts a success, it matters not whether that organization is the S. of T., I. O. G. T., R. T. of T. or any other society formed with the object of advancing the temperance cause, and as we have one temperance body organized in Moose Jaw we would impress upon all the temperance people the necessity of joining those now at work, and thus united we will be able to accomplish much for the cause of Temperance. A single soldier is easily overcome, but if we stand united, we march onward to certain victory.

Already a number have been won from the evils of intemperance through the aid of our council and though few we are determined to make our presence felt in this district during the coming months and we solicit the aid of every temperance person so that our efforts may be crowned with success.

COMMUNICATIONS.

To the Editor of THE TIMES

Dear Sir

During the recent months the temperance people have been naturally asking: what excuse does our town authorities make for their lack of action in connection with the Liquor License Ordinance

Here we have an incorporated town with a council of presumably intellectual citizens to represent and look after the welfare of the town and yet I doubt if you can find a town or village in the whole of Assiniboia where the Liquor License Ordinance is being so frequently and grossly violated.

Time after time gangs of drunken rowdies are quarrelling and rioting either in public streets or in one or other of the Liquor dives which take the place of hotels in our enlightened town, until it is quite a common occurrence to see men battered, bruised and bleeding on our streets, while the noise of their drunken revels is heard until long past the hour of midnight.

If such scenes were to occur in many of the towns of this district the rowdies would be arrested and the dives closed up, thus the best interests of humanity would be served, but in Moose Jaw there seems to be no limit to the number of offences these licensed rum-sellers can commit, and not have a single effort made to have the law enforced. I do not wish to decry our present council but only to arouse them to a sense of their duty in this matter.

I can see no reason why the rights of the citizens should be so ungraciously trampled upon by these unscrupulous rum-sellers until it seems as though no offence is too heinous for them to commit.

I would also call the attention of the people to the necessity of having these fountains of evil closed up.

Why should we license men to degrade our citizens and debauch the morals of our children, is there a single parent who wishes to have his child become as one of those drunken rowdies all for the few dollars he imagines he saves through the revenue derived from the Liquor traffic.

It is true we may not at present be able to obtain total prohibition but if we are united we can at least close up those licensed hotbeds of iniquity which are exerting such demoralizing influences in our midst.

Why not use your influence and secure local option for the Moose Jaw district if it would not entirely obliterate the baneful effect of the licensed traffic it would at least be an improvement on the present state of affairs.

Yours truly

MORALITY.

THE OPEN GATES OF HELL.

A letter to the N. E. Voice from Oak Park, Ill., tells of a citizen of that place, a church member and a man of noble character, barring his children to whiskey, who left his home and family to start for a Prohibition State to get away from the temptation of the saloons. He had prayed over the matter and discussed it with his wife, and deliberately came to the conclusion that there was no other way of escape for him. He could not bear to bid his babies good-bye for fear it might weaken his resolution, nor did he dare to wait till morning and then take the train at Oak Park, as in that case he would have to pass by the open saloons. According he walked nine miles in the dark of night to take a train before the saloons should begin "business." He told his wife they were like the open gates of hell to him and when he was near them it seemed as though the hosts of the devil were after him to get him in.

'Neath the sheltering pall of night,
'Neath the stars that shine like tears;
See this father hurrying on,

With his warring hopes and fears;
Swiftly from his babies sleeping,
Swiftly from his poor wife weeping,
Speeds he on, oh, manly part!

Tempted, weak, yet gallant heart!
In God's name he travels well,
Flying from the gates of hell.

Through the city's silent street,
Past the haunts of sin and sorrow,
Hear his echoing, haunted steps,
Hastening to the glad to-morrow;

Thinking of his babies sleeping,
Praying for his good wife weeping;
Past the churches tall and still,
Past the mansions on the hill;

On he flies, God-speed him well,
Flying from the gates of hell.

In his tossing troubled thought,
Church and mansion melt in one,
Shaping forth a blessed spot—
A home, a home, and that his own—

Where in peace his babies are sleeping,
Where for joy his wife is weeping,
Where his noble heart may know,
Safely from the demon foe,

Where God's blessing rich may dwell,
Far from open gates of hell.

Christian man, with pitying thought,
Use that ballot in your hand;
Here's the battle to be fought—
Church of Christ, arise and stand!

Shield the million babies sleeping,
Succor to the poor wives weeping;
Break the chains that bind our brothers,
Dry the tears of pale-faced mothers;

Rise and crush this demon fell—
Shut up all the gates of hell.

RHEUMATISM
NERVOUS DISEASES
CAN BE CURED

ELECTRICITY, AS APPLIED BY THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT AND APPLIANCES.

Is now recognized as the greatest boon offered to suffering humanity. It is fast taking the place of drugs in all nervous and rheumatic troubles, and will effect cures in seemingly hopeless cases where every other known means has failed. It is Nature's remedy, and by its steady, soothing current that is readily felt, POSITIVELY CURES Nerves Prostration, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Kidney Disease, Varicose, Lumbago, Lamé Back and Dyspepsia.

RHEUMATISM

"For twenty years I have been a martyr to rheumatism, suffering at times the most excruciating pains, from which I could get no relief, for doctors' medicines, salicylates, etc., had no effect on me, and it was only when I got the Owen Electric Belt that I began to get well. I am thoroughly cured, and have been so for months. The Belt's action was most marvellous, removing the pain in a few days."—H. SCHMIDT, 25 Vanasse street, Toronto.

NERVOUS DISEASES

Thousands of people suffer from a variety of nervous diseases such as General Weakness, Impedency, Lost Manhood, etc., that the old modes of treatment fail to cure. There is a loss of nerve force or power that cannot be restored by any medical treatment, and any doctor who would try to accomplish this by any kind of drugs is practicing a dangerous form of charlatanry. Electricity applied by the Owen Electric Belt and Appliances—this is the only known remedial agent that will supply what is lacking, namely, nerve force or power, impart tone and vigor to the organs, and restore to healthy action the whole nervous system.

KIDNEY DISEASE

"Your Belt has done wonders for me. It stopped the bleeding of my kidneys, which were so bad that the doctors failed to help me. I am satisfied it saved my life, and I am a wonder to everybody who knew how bad I was."—W. PATTERSON, Bluevale, Ont.

LUMBAGO AND LAME BACK

"On the advice of my doctor, after everything else failed, I got an Owen Electric Belt for a severe attack of lumbago and weak back. At that time I was so bad I could not stand up without assistance, so intense the pain. After wearing the Belt for a short time the pains are all gone and I am as well as ever. I know it was the Belt cured me, and I would not be without it for $100."—W. J. LARWIN, conductor C.P.R., Owen Sound, Ont.

DYSPEPSIA

"For over four years I have been a sufferer from indigestion, constipation and nervous prostration, and spent hundreds of dollars on doctors and drugs without any benefit. I purchased the Owen Electric Belt about four months ago, and have worn it since with the most beneficial results, for I am perfectly well and free from every trouble."—A. McDOUGALL, Macville, Ont.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD

To show an electric belt where the current is under the control of the patient as completely as this. We can use the same belt on an infant that we would on a grown up simply reducing the current. Other belts have been in the market for five or ten years longer, but to-day there are more Owen Belts manufactured and sold than all other makes combined.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS AND CHEAP BELTS

FALL OPENING

SEASON 1892.

Six years ago when I started business on the cash plan, other merchants gave me three months to last. I am here yet and have pretty well demonstrated the fact that the people of Moose Jaw will pay cash if by doing so they can save money. This system has enabled me to throw on the market large lots of goods purchased from large wholesale stocks, parties retiring from business, and overloaded manufacturers. These I have sold at low prices at the same time selling regular goods at from 10 to 25 per cent. less than other dealers. I shall continue this method of doing business regardless of croakers.

I will have auction sales on the following dates:

OCTOBER 8TH, 15TH, 22ND AND 29TH,

OF

Cook-stoves, Heating-stoves, Stove Furniture, Cutlery, Brushes, Brooms, Etc., Etc.

I have just received a car-load of all kinds of stoves. Another car-load is on the way. These goods are to be sold at the lowest prices. Call and see my stock.

FOR CASH ONLY.

Thanking you for past patronage.

They are greatly impressed with the stock raising qualities of the Moose Jaw District and speak of returning next spring and going into the raising of stock near the ranch of Mr. Williams.

The Anniversary Services of the Moose Jaw Methodist Church will be preached on Sunday, October 30th, by the Rev. John McDougall, of Morley, Alta. It has been decided to have no tea meeting this year, but to ask the people of the congregation to contribute by a special offering towards the purpose for which the ordinary tea-meeting would be held. It is believed that if a congregation contribute a sum directly to the church, at least equal to that which would be spent directly and indirectly for an annual supper, that a great saving of time, trouble and labor would be effected, as much or more money would be raised for the local needs of the church, and that it would prove a more satisfactory method of giving to the Lord's cause.

A congregational gathering will be held on Monday evening, 31st inst., at 8 o'clock. A good programme will be furnished and the financial statement for the year will be presented.

SAD DEATH IN MOOSE JAW.

T. J. Walker Dies of Consumption.

A death of an exceedingly sad nature took place in Moose Jaw, on Tuesday.

Last spring, T. J. Walker, a young man from Waterford, County Norfolk, Ontario, came to this town and has worked at odd jobs off and on all summer. He was about 25 years of age. He had been suffering from lung trouble for about two years. About a week ago he became unable to work and took to his bed in the Ottawa Hotel. It was found that he was suffering from consumption.

As the sufferer was destitute of means, the council provided medical and other attendance, and everything was done to alleviate his sufferings. Death, however, released him on Tuesday morning.

The body of the deceased has been prepared for burial and is now awaiting the arrival of a brother en route from Chicago.

To Cross in Three Days

MONTREAL, Oct. 20.—The object of Mr. Van Horne's trip to England, from which he has just returned, has been kept a profound secret and has afforded ground for many speculations. When William IV. died, the first news of the event reached the continent through a telegram from a London dealer to his agent in Italy, telling him to order nothing but black hats. A gentleman who was a fellow-passenger of Mr. Van Horne's on the last steamer from England is another proof of how news sometimes reaches the public in a roundabout way. He is a well-known Englishman who is interested in Canada, and in course of conversation repeated part of what the C. P. R. magnate told him was the chief mission he had in England, from which it appears that Mr. Van Horne arranged for a fast Atlantic steamship line to be in operation in two years to Quebec. "It will," said Mr. Van Horne, "be a purely passenger line as the rate of speed at which the steamers will run will preclude the carriage of a pound of freight." He added: "The steamers will run in connection with the C. P. R. across the continent. They will cross from land to land in one hour less than three days and land passengers at Quebec in five days. We will therefore be able to take a great deal of American travel away from New York. In fact we must do so. They will see the advantage of using our fast line of steamers and through line of railway when we show them that we can land a Chicago ocean voyager at his own door in the same time it would take other lines to land him in New York. That will be at least an advantage of 24 hours. The advantage of the ocean passenger of being on the open sea only three days will attract thousands to the Quebec route." Mr. Van Horne also dwelt on the advantages to England offered by fast time on a through route from Great Britain to India via the fast Atlantic service, the C. P. R. transcontinental line and the C. P. R. Pacific steamers to the east.
